

Editor Note on Journal of Neurology and Clinical Neuroscience

Dear Reader

I am pleased to mention that during the year 2019, all the issues of Journal of Neurology and Clinical Neuroscience, Volume 4 were published online within time and the print issues were also brought out and dispatched within 30 days of publishing the issue online. The objective of JNCN is to publish up-to-date information on aspects of Neurology, Neurological diseases and topics related to Clinical Neuroscience.

As such, the journal aspires to be reliable source of information on discoveries and current information. Each issue of the journal contain different types of papers, mostly the first , regional spotlight; provides a short contemporary on an issue in the field of Neurology and Clinical Neuroscience. The other papers is related to awards in the field of Clinical Neuroscience.

I take the opportunity to acknowledge the contribution of Dr Xu Wang during the final editing of articles published and support rendered by the editorial assistant, in bringing out issues of JNCN in time. I would also like to thank all the Authors, Reviewers, Publisher, the Advisory and the Editorial Board of JNCN, the office bearers and staff for their support in bringing out yet another volume of JNCN and look forward to their unrelenting support to bring out the Volume 4 of JNCN in scheduled time.
